FOR FUNERAL HOMES, CEMETERIES, CHURCHES & FAMILIES

A steady presence on a hard day.

Highland bagpipes for funerals, memorials, graveside services, and veterans honors across Central Texas.

When a family asks if you know a piper, Ryan is someone you can recommend without hesitation — calm and professional on a difficult day, easy to coordinate, and never a surprise for your team.

WHERE THE PIPES FIT

Moments in a service

- Gathering music as guests arrive and are seated.
- Procession or graveside approach to lead or accompany the family.
- A single feature tune such as Amazing Grace.
- Final tribute or recessional including veterans honors.

EASY FOR YOUR TEAM

How he works

- Short-notice requests honored whenever the calendar allows.
- Direct coordination with directors, staff, and clergy.
- Full traditional Highland dress appropriate to the service.
- Licensed, insured and reliably early.

BACKGROUND

A professional piper, not a favor to manage

Ryan performed professionally in the UK for seven years and served as the official piper at Lancaster Castle. He returned home to Central Texas and now works directly with funeral homes across the Austin area.

OFTEN REQUESTED

Amazing Grace · Going Home · Flowers of the Forest · The Last Post · Highland Cathedral · Danny Boy
